Headline:
Dry with sunny spells turning cloudy later this week.

Today:
A dry and sunny start across the country. Perhaps hazy but clearing throughout the day with brighter spells, first over the western areas with the rest of the country to follow. Feeling mild and perhaps warm in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry with clear spells continuing during the evening for most areas. Cloud building later in the north and spreading across the country overnight. Turning chilly. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Thursday:
Largely cloudy and dry with some fog patches first thing. Some brief sunny spells but a risk of the odd shower along the north and west coast. Breezy, rather mild. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Cloudy with showers to start on Friday then dry with sunny spells. Mostly cloudy with patchy light rain or drizzle on Saturday and Sunday. Mild at first but turning colder.
